Just before the France sailed from Havre, William K. Vanderbilt came on board with just a bag or two, leaving the rest of his luggage to be brought over on the new steam yacht which he recently purchased in France. The Vanderbilt craft will be named the Ara and will be used largely for winter cruising.

The rain which has followed him everywhere since he sailed from here in June typified by its gloom the conditions which he found throughout. Europe, Mr. Vanderbilt said.

Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, of Spray, S. C., returned, bringing with her a memory of a visit with Queen Marie of Rumania. Mrs. Mebane was presented to Queen Marie first in 1919, and on this visit was received at the palace shortly before the coronation ceremonies. The desire of Queen Marie to visit the United States was correlorated by Mrs. Mebane, who said that her royal hostess had expressed a wish to visit every state in the union. All thoughts of a trip to this country will have to wait until internal affairs in Rumania and the general situation in the Near East have become more restful.
